1. Please tick the dates you wish to commit to at the time of booking; these need not necessarily be in a block. If you are certain about your plans please tick all the dates you intend to come, even if you are not paying for them all initially, this will help us see if there are gaps, which could be offered to new traders/charity stalls. The form can be revisited to add further dates later in the season if required.
2. Write the payment you are making in the second column against the first attendance to which it applies.

Three bonus free weeks can be claimed if your full season, of at least 19 weeks, is pre-paid.

E.g. if you want to book the full 22 weeks then pay for 19 weeks. If you know you will be away for one, two or three weeks that's also fine, pay for 18/17/16 weeks for attendance on 21/20/19 weeks.

Payment is required for at least six weeks.

One bonus free week can be claimed if you make, on time to the Council Office, three six-week payments.
